

measured code length against known information

$R^*(0.90)$ against known information, bars are the seed range

